

Did You Know?

The Oakmont Farmers Market re-opened May 21st. They're open every Wednesday from 3pm-7pm.

*Jan Marie Rushford is the new 4th Ward Commissioner.

*There is a new comprehensive plan for development along Eagle Road. View the plan at Haverfordtownship.com. It can be found by clicking on community development, comprehensive plan, addendum report.

Let us know what you know so we can pass it on...

Please remember to drive carefully

The warm weather brings lots of children outside to play. Obey the speed limit and stop completely at stop signs.

This will help keep our children safe.

Membership

Thanks to all who joined PFCA.

According to our By-Laws, "Membership dues paid during the September-to-December membership drives are for the following calendar year. Membership dues paid anytime outside the September-to-December membership drives will be for the year in which collected."

So, if you have not yet paid your 2008 membership dues please do so soon. There is a Membership Form in this newsletter and also available on our website.

Our 2009 Membership Drive will start in September 2008. Your annual dues fund all the wonderful neighborhood events; new events or programs are dependent on new memberships."
